NO FAMINE, NO PLAGUE IN SOUTH, CONFERENCE FINDS

Report Adopted by Meeting of Health Officers Declares Misleading Statements Have Been Made.

PELLAGRA INCREASE EXPECTED, HOWEVER

Intensive Public Health Education Necessary in Next Few Years, Officials Say.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 5.—Denial that there is a "condition approaching a famine or plague in the South" was made today in a report unanimously adopted by health officials from a dozen southern states in conference here with Surgeon-General Cumming of the Public Health Service to discuss the pellagra situation. The report held that statements "erroneous and misleading" had been made to the public.

After brisk discussion, a statement incorporated in the report as prepared by a committee of five health commissioners, that "we do not regard the situation in any sense as more serious at the present time than during the last several years," was eliminated at the suggestion of Dr. Olin West, Tennessee Health Commissioner.

Another clause that "there is no occasion for extending charitable measures for the relief of the conditions so far as any state is concerned where pellagra is prevalent," also was stricken out. Dr. W. S. Rankin, health officer of North Carolina, contending that it would be a reflection on the South to make any reference to the possibility of charitable relief.

The report emphasized the necessity of affording federal, state and local health agencies sufficient funds to cope with health conditions generally.

Text of Report.

As adopted, the text of the report was as follows:

"State health officers of the South, in session in conference at the request of the Surgeon-General of the United States Public Health Service deplore the fact that an impression has been created that famine conditions exist in the South and as a result that pellagra has increased to an alarming extent.

"After making an investigation, using all information available, we do not believe the situation warrants or should occasion any undue alarm. The indications are that there is an increase of pellagra this year in localities in certain states where the disease has been epidemic, but data in hand shows in an unmistakable way that the number of cases and deaths from pellagra during 1921 will be less than the annual average during the period of 1914 to 1921.

"In other words, it is fully substantiated by facts in hand that pellagra has steadily decreased in the Southern States during previous years. In drawing conclusions relative to the actual control of any disease comparative statistics are valuable unless an analysis is made for a period of years, not less than five and preferably 10.

"No Approach to Plague."

"There is no condition approaching a famine or plague in the South. It is obvious that this is a clear case of misinterpretation of facts, an incorrect analysis, and, as a result, statements have been made that are erroneous and misleading to the public.

"We realize that pellagra requires scientific and aggressive consideration and that the solution of the pellagra problem depends upon sane educational methods.

"The whole question is one that should be approached as a public health problem and dealt with by a well-planned plan.

"There can be no doubt that there has been an increase in the prevalence of tuberculosis, pellagra and other diseases during the next few years as a result of the economic depression throughout the entire country. Federal, State and local health departments are given adequate financial support and co-operation in directing intensive public health education and in the establishment and maintenance of local health organizations, which are fundamental in the prevention and control of all disease and the promotion of the public health."

The health officers were "evenly divided as to the advisability of going on record that the pellagra situation was no worse at the present time than during recent years. Dr. Rankin declared that while he "resented" the end of his toes to the "famine or plague" charges that a very serious condition of famine existed in the South," health authorities also realize the seriousness of the situation on Page 2, Column 7.

ASSOCIATED PRESS GETS BOAT RACE NEWS BY WIRELESS PHONE

Receiving Operator Three Miles From Scene of Speed Contests on Lake at Chicago.

By the Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Aug. 5.—Chicago newspapers received results of the speedboat races off the municipal pier today by wireless telephone through the Associated Press.

The U. S. Naval Reserve Force of Illinois, Great Lakes Naval Training Station, and an electric company furnished the equipment.

A reporter on the submarine chaser 419 dictated the race bulletins to a receiving operator three miles away in the Associated Press office. No outside aerial was used at the receiving end, five short strands of wire strung from the picture molding sufficing to catch the signals.

NATURE OF PARTIAL REPORT IN SELPH INQUIRY NOT DIVULGED

Two Inspectors Assigned to Investigate St. Louis Postoffice Return to Finish Work.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 5.—The two inspectors assigned by Postmaster General Hays to investigate charges against Postmaster Selph of St. Louis have made a partial report on their findings to the department here, it was learned today. The nature of the report was not disclosed.

The inspectors have returned to St. Louis to finish their work. At the department today officials reported that a "full and impartial" investigation of condition in the St. Louis office would be made. The report, they said, would be without any partisan bias, one of the inspectors being a Democrat and the other a Republican.

REPUTED MEMBER OF GANG IS FOUND MURDERED IN AUTO

Earl Bolin, Awaiting Trial on Two Charges, Apparently Shot to Death as Result of Feud, Police Say.

HAD BEEN ARRESTED 31 TIMES SINCE 1915

Body in Tonneau of Machine, With Engine Running on Lonely Road—Bullet Wounds in Chest.

Earl Bolin, 27 years old, of 1718 1/2 South Seventh street, a huckster, was found shot to death in his seven-passenger automobile on Loughborough avenue 500 feet west of Morganford road in a lonely section of Southwest St. Louis at 11:45 p. m. yesterday under circumstances which caused the police to believe he was killed in a gang feud.

Bolin, the police records show, had been arrested 31 times since 1915. He was a reputed member of the Barry Street gang, rival of the Cuckoo gang, and had been under bond on charges of stealing from a garage and highway robbery. He had served two workhouse sentences for larceny.

The police today were rounding up members of the Barry and Cuckoo gangs for questioning. They also questioned Mrs. Laura King, 20 years old, of 2438 Pennsylvania avenue, when they learned she had been visiting at the Bolin home for the last five days and was seen with Bolin in his automobile yesterday afternoon. Mrs. King said Bolin drove her from his home to her home yesterday afternoon, arriving about 6 o'clock, and she knew nothing of his movements after that. On the drive to her home, she said, Bolin was accompanied by a man whom she did not know.

Police Found by Postmen

There is little hope in the buses as at present constituted. Citizens, business men, busmen themselves, admit that in numbers and equipment the present fleet is inadequate. The busmen are asking for a franchise to attract capital for extension of service. The street railways has intimated a desire to resume operations if the buses are eliminated. The city administration is neutral to passive. So is the Chamber of Commerce.

Meanwhile Des Moines is running its motors. The city claims a motor car to every seven persons. If that claim is true, there are cars in reserve. Yesterday buses that seat 20 were carrying 40; cars of five passenger capacity were carrying seven or eight.

DES MOINES HAS NO STREET CARS, BUT KEEPS UP ITS GAIT

Circus Comes to Town and Crowds Get There Just as in the Days of Normal Traffic.

BUSSES AND PRIVATE AUTOS KEPT BUSY

Service Inadequate, but City Seems to Be Waiting on Serious Sag Before Acting on Serious Problem.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
DES MOINES, Ia., Aug. 5.—Motor buses filled to the limit, motor cars with smiling men and women crowded to the running, boards, endless lines of traffic guided straight ahead, or into cross streets, formed the pictures of Des Moines yesterday in its first street carless day. Men and women got to work, on time, some ahead of time. They returned home on time. There was a circus in town and everybody that wanted to go appeared to be there. When the parade went by downtown late in the morning the streets were packed.

Des Moines claims a population of 130,000. The street car company claims an average daily traffic of 105,000 fares. It says the buses take from that a total of 45,000, to the destruction of the company's business. The company cut service at the time it increased its fare to 8 cents.

Bus Fleet Inadequate

Bus men, car drivers and city officials do not regard the first day as a test. Neither does Des Moines. It is carrying 40 cars of five passenger capacity were carrying seven or eight.

H-1, Smallest Dirigible in Service, Seen 48 Miles Away After Ascent From Rockaway.

By the Associated Press.

ROCKAWAY, N. Y., Aug. 5.—The H-1, the smallest dirigible in the United States navy, today fell on Long Island during a test flight, dumped out her crew of three, and, lightened of this burden, ascended several thousand feet for a runway flight north over Long Island Sound.

The crew—Test Pilot Lieut. Charles Bauch of Washington, Machinist E. A. Sullivan and Chief Aviation Rigger D. A. Kenney, both of Rockaway—escaped serious injury, although they were unable immediately to return to duty.

Rescuers found the three airmen lying in a swamp. Aviation officers said the H-1, which met with motor trouble on a recent trial flight, had developed the same ailment today.

CARUSO TOOK VIRTUALLY ALL HIS WEALTH TO ITALY

Sold Nearly All His Securities and Shipped Valuable Art Collections to Native Land.

"I MAY NEVER GET BACK," SINGER SAID

Naples Resumes Normal Life After Funeral in Which Church, Government and Populace Took Part.

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Aug. 5.—Enrico Caruso, the late world famous tenor, left virtually no property, real or personal, in this country, when he sailed last spring to his native Italy. Bruno Zitrato, his private secretary and confidant for many years, announced.

Even his subjects of art, his ceramics, his pictures, coins and curios, of which he had a marvelous collection, were packed into 20 large trunks and boxes, and most of them were shipped to Italy. So were all the personal effects and furnishings with which he had beautified his hotel suite here.

Caruso's frankly spoken reason for this course, though jealously expressed, Zitrato said, was the belief that he might never get back to New York.

Caruso owned no real estate in this country, Zitrato said. He had a summer home in East Huntington, L. I., which he had leased for a term of six months, and his city residence was the hotel suite.

"As for personal property," Zitrato added, "practically all of Mr. Caruso's stocks and bonds, with the sole exception of a comparatively small block of Liberty Loan securities, which he still retains in a safe deposit vault, were sold out completely something like two years ago. His reason for this action, I presume, was the heavy Government taxes now imposed upon such holdings, though during war time and thereafter there were few men, if any, who paid large income taxes imposed more cheerfully than he."

Zitrato declared that neither he nor anyone else in this country could give an accurate estimate as to the amount of Caruso's estate.

(Special Cable to the Post-Dispatch.)

NAPLES, Aug. 5.—Caruso's family, including his natural children, Rodolfo and Maria, are much upset at the failure to find the proper will. Wednesday night Maria, with other relatives, tried to raise up his spirit and question him. As the body still lay in state, their action aroused considerable criticism.

The source failed to get any satisfaction except an alleged statement from his spirit, that though he is now in peaceful surroundings his soul is tormented by the fact that he died without making a proper will. Naples, always willing to admit such tales, is greatly excited by the whole episode, and the reports grow more fantastic every hour.

Meanwhile, a feverish search is being made for a later will than the one found amid the papers dated 1919. Italian law considers this will void, because it was made before the birth of his legitimate daughter, Gloria, and therefore does not mention her.

Caruso's administrator at Segna, Tuscany, called the first of yet another will, dated on the eve of Caruso's Mexican trip. Unless a later will is found Italian law considers that Caruso died intestate, and his estate will be divided among his widow and two-thirds, equally divided, among the natural and legitimate children.

Mrs. Caruso says it is impossible to say how much her husband left, but she thinks it is around $5,000,000 altogether.

His Naples friends say there must be a will later than the 1919 one, because Caruso had a passion for making wills, especially when about to cross the Atlantic.

TROOPS NECESSARY TO CONTROL CROWDS AT CARUSO FUNERAL

By the Associated Press.

This city resumed its normal life today, following the death of Enrico Caruso on Tuesday, and his funeral yesterday. Seldom in the history of the city has the death of a man in private life so affected the impressionable Neapolitans and from the time the great tenor's death was announced until his body was placed in its temporary vault, business virtually was at a standstill. Church, Government and the people yesterday paid the last honors to Caruso.

TWO ROBBERS LOOT MAIL AND EXPRESS CAR IN ILLINOIS

Men Board B. & O. at Beecher City at 9:30 P. M., Ride to Altamont, 63 Miles Northeast of St. Louis, and Escape With Packages in Automobile—Posses Take Up Pursuit.

MAN KILLED, ONE HURT WHEN DERRICK SLIPS

By the Associated Press.
GREENVILLE, Ill., Aug. 5.—Two robbers who boarded a Baltimore & Ohio passenger train at Beecher City at 9:30 o'clock last night held up the express messenger, rifled registered mail pouches and express packages and when they left the train at Altamont, five miles south of Beecher City, took all the mail and some express packages, boarded a waiting automobile and escaped. Several posses were formed promptly and started in pursuit of the robbers.

C. T. Wade of Florio, Ill., the messenger, said the men jumped into his car as the train was pulling out of Beecher City and he at first thought they were railroad employees wanting a ride. They drew revolvers and made him stand with hands up and face to the side of the car while they looted packages, he said, and then robbed him of his watch and money.

Wade said the robbers, both of whom were masked, appeared to be looking for some particular package in the registered mail, and apparently found what they were seeking. They seemed to select express packages that appeared to contain valuables, he said. Wade described the pair as a tall and a short man.

WATCHMAN HOBBED IN CAR

At Altamont, which is 75 miles southeast of Springfield, where the train arrived at 10:43, the crossing watchman, for some unexplained reason, climbed into the combination mail and express car and the robbers also took his watch and money, according to Wade.

Bloodhounds were obtained and they followed the trail to the point where the robbers got into the automobile, but could lead the officers no further.

A check of the express shipment in the car today disclosed that 70 to 90 watches, consigned to a jeweler at Centralia were in the robbers' loot.

It was reported here that express agents had reported to Altamont that robbers may have taken valuables and money amounting to more than $50,000, but this report could not be confirmed.

$46,000 TAKEN IN WOOD RIVER MAIL THEFT RECOVERED

Shipment Containing Standard Oil Payroll, Stolen Yesterday, Found in Field 10 Miles From Scene.

ONE PACKAGE STILL IS THOUGHT MISSING

Efforts Made to Ascertain Contents of Lost Bundle—Four Suspects Are Arrested Here.

Postoffice inspectors today in the Granite City police station counted $46,000 in currency, stolen yesterday morning from a railroad messenger at Wood River, Ill., and hidden by the robbers in a field on a farm one mile north of Peters Station, near Edwardsville, and found by a searching party last evening. The inspectors brought the money to the Federal Building in St. Louis this afternoon.

Another registered package, reported consigned to Wood River from another city, and said to have been placed in the pouch with the $46,000, is still missing, and the inspectors are endeavoring to ascertain its contents through a check of its registry number back to the point of shipment.

Four police characters were arrested at Nineteenth and Branch streets last night and are held in St. Louis for investigation for possible connection with the robbery. The money was recovered by a searching party made up of Chief of Police Roy Clark of Granite City, postoffice inspectors, American Railway Express and railroad agents and three citizens who went to the cornfield to investigate a report that the robbers had been surrounded. While there they made a careful search of the neighborhood where the abandoned automobile was found. Special Agent Kellogg of the Big Four Railroad discovered the pouch, in a thicket. It was taken to Granite City and turned over to the postoffice inspectors.

Ray Describes the Thieves. No clew to the identity of where abouts of the robbers, for whom a reward of $15,000 has been offered by the Postoffice Department, has been reported. They were described by Tony Felardo, sender of the messenger, as men of medium build, one of them, the man who drove the automobile, as having light hair, and the man who struck his father as probably being left-handed. The boy arrived at this conclusion through the fact that the robber changed his revolver from left to his right hand and then struck his father with his left hand. He said the man at the wheel wore a brown suit, and the two others wore coats, one wearing a white shirt and the other a striped shirt.

The automobile used by the robbers was taken from the Alexander Garage, on Bayard avenue, near Delmar boulevard, between 4 and 5 a. m. yesterday. It is the property of Bert Van Preter, a merchant of Alton, Mo. Felardo, who lives at 1012 N. 10th street, St. Louis, Tuesday, and while at a bathhouse, loaned it to Andrew McQuillan of 4832 Fountain avenue, who put it in the Alexander garage for the night.

Holding Is Committed Within 10 Yards of Tower Watchman. The robbery was committed at the Big Four Railroad station at North Wood River about 7:10 a. m., when three men drew up in a large touring car a few minutes before the registered mail pouch and several boxes of second-class mail had been thrown from the train.

Tom Felardo, 46 years old, a naturalized Italian, employed by the Chicago & Alton Railroad, carried the mail from the station to the post office, a distance of about half a mile, had loaded the pouch and sacks on his pushcart and started across the tracks, up the main street, in the direction of the post office. He was unarmed and accompanied only by his 13-year-old son, Tony.

He had taken only a few steps when two of the robbers jumped out of the automobile and confronted him with revolvers and the command to put up his hands. The third robber remaining at the wheel of the car, with the engine running and a rifle in his lap.

Felardo did not appear to comprehend the command and was aroused to action by a blow to the right side of the face that staggered him and loosened one of his teeth. A revolver was held to his chest by the smaller of the men who struck him, while the other dumped the pouch and sacks out of the car and selected the registered pouch and a small sack of second-class mail. The two men then entered the car and were driven swiftly away by the third, in the direction of St. Louis.

Thieves Escape Observation. Felardo promptly gave the alarm to a man in the tower not 10 yards away who had two loaded revolvers in his desk. But this man did not see the robbery, although the view from the tower is unobstructed, and before Felardo, who speaks English imperfectly, could make him understand what had happened, the swiftly-moving machine had taken the robbers out of sight around a turn in the road.

Felardo has been carrying the mail unguarded from all trains at Wood River for 10 years. He said—and it is confirmed at the bank—that he sometimes had as much as

ULSTER CABINET MEETS, WITHOUT DEVELOPMENT

Peace Question Only Incidentally Discussed, Says Secretary, After Session—No Message From De Valera, Belfast Says.

By the Associated Press. BELFAST, Aug. 5.—A meeting of the Ulster cabinet was held this afternoon. At its close Lieutenant-Colonel W. B. Spender, secretary to the cabinet, said there had been no new developments in the situation, and that the peace question had been only incidentally discussed.

By the Associated Press. LONDON, Aug. 5.—Messages from Belfast today reiterate that no message has been received there from Eamon de Valera.

It is added that no overtures will be entertained which diminish the powers of the northern Parliament.

$75,000 in currency on these trips. He never called at the bank, he explained, for the reason that he was afraid the "other fellow might pull his trigger first."

"Then where would I be?" he asked. "I get only $10 a month for the job."

He gave a fairly intelligent account of what occurred, but said he was dazed by the blow on his cheek and could not describe the robbers. Tony, the son, gave a good description of the robbery, remarking that he observed that one of the men appeared to be left-handed. He said the robbers paid no attention to him, and while they worked he made arrangements for the money to be taken out of the number of the automobile license.

At the first State and Savings Bank, Irvin C. Hatridge, assistant cashier, said he was called out by the robbers, and told of the robbery about 7:30 a. m.

"I am not surprised," he told his informant. "It is a wonder it did not happen before."

Had Felardo Seen Them? Hatridge told a Post-Dispatch reporter, "We have always felt this thing would happen. We have talked it over with the postmaster several times, and about three months ago he arranged to have money come only by day trains. There was never a guard with Felardo and he was never armed. Felardo is old beyond his years and certainly could not stand up to the robbers."

"Our postmaster has been uneasy about these shipments of mail all hours and wheeled around through sparsely populated streets, and I understand that he has been under the protection of the postoffice inspectors."

On the advice of R. A. Wade, a postoffice inspector from St. Louis, the postmaster, Frank Z. Carsten, decided to deliver the money by the statement of Hatridge more than to remark that he had had no authority to employ armed guards. He added that Felardo was employed by the railroad and that the mail did not come under the postoffice control until it was delivered at the postoffice.

After the robbery, Hatridge drove to St. Louis in his automobile and left the money in the trunk of the car. He was taken to the Alexander Garage, on Bayard avenue, near Delmar boulevard, between 4 and 5 a. m. yesterday. It is the property of Bert Van Preter, a merchant of Alton, Mo. Felardo, who lives at 1012 N. 10th street, St. Louis, Tuesday, and while at a bathhouse, loaned it to Andrew McQuillan of 4832 Fountain avenue, who put it in the Alexander garage for the night.

Holding Is Committed Within 10 Yards of Tower Watchman. The robbery was committed at the Big Four Railroad station at North Wood River about 7:10 a. m., when three men drew up in a large touring car a few minutes before the registered mail pouch and several boxes of second-class mail had been thrown from the train.

Tom Felardo, 46 years old, a naturalized Italian, employed by the Chicago & Alton Railroad, carried the mail from the station to the post office, a distance of about half a mile, had loaded the pouch and sacks on his pushcart and started across the tracks, up the main street, in the direction of the post office. He was unarmed and accompanied only by his 13-year-old son, Tony.

He had taken only a few steps when two of the robbers jumped out of the automobile and confronted him with revolvers and the command to put up his hands. The third robber remaining at the wheel of the car, with the engine running and a rifle in his lap.

Felardo did not appear to comprehend the command and was aroused to action by a blow to the right side of the face that staggered him and loosened one of his teeth. A revolver was held to his chest by the smaller of the men who struck him, while the other dumped the pouch and sacks out of the car and selected the registered pouch and a small sack of second-class mail. The two men then entered the car and were driven swiftly away by the third, in the direction of St. Louis.

Thieves Escape Observation. Felardo promptly gave the alarm to a man in the tower not 10 yards away who had two loaded revolvers in his desk. But this man did not see the robbery, although the view from the tower is unobstructed, and before Felardo, who speaks English imperfectly, could make him understand what had happened, the swiftly-moving machine had taken the robbers out of sight around a turn in the road.

Felardo has been carrying the mail unguarded from all trains at Wood River for 10 years. He said—and it is confirmed at the bank—that he sometimes had as much as

$750,000,000 CUT IN EXPENSES UP TO U. S., MELLON SAYS

Secretary Tells House Leaders It Is Only Way to Reduce Nation's Tax Bill Half a Billion.

SAYS REVENUE MUST REACH $3,570,000,000

To Cut Income Without Lowering Expenditure Estimate of $4,550,000,000 Would Be Folly, He Asserts.

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Aug. 5.—To realize their expressed hope of reducing the nation's tax bill by half a billion dollars, Republican leaders of the House of Representatives added that on the basis of treasury estimates, to be faced with the task of cutting three-quarters of a billion dollars from estimated expenditures for the fiscal year, or else a huge Federal deficit next July 1.

Secretary Mellon, in a statement to the committee dealing with tax revision, has warned that even if the $500,000,000 should be lopped off the estimated expenditures of $4,550,000,000, the tax yield could not safely be permitted to fall below $3,570,000,000, the estimated return under the existing law.

Coupled with this warning is the declaration that it would be "folly" to reduce revenues without the assurance of substantial additional reduction in expenditures. Mellon added that in seeking to arrive at an estimate of the cash outgo for the year, the treasury could not take into account "paper savings" or hoped-for reductions in expenditures that are not reasonably expected to materialize.

The secretary showed that expenditures thus far in this fiscal year had actually increased as compared with those of a year ago. He told the committee that ordinary expenditures for July, the first month of the fiscal year, were $322,000,000, as against $307,000,000 for July, 1920, leaving a deficit of $15,000,000, as compared with a surplus of $15,000,000 for July a year ago. Of the total expenditures last month, $115,000,000 was for the account of the military and naval establishments, $32,000,000 for the civil service, and $58,000,000 for other departments.

Anything like these rates, the estimate will be greatly exceeded," declared Mellon.

Mondell Favors Reduction. In a statement published today, however, Representative Mondell of Wyoming, the Republican leader, declares that in his judgment, it is entirely practical to reduce the total expenditures to the essential needs of the Government.

"I realize," he added, "that if all the bureaus, departments and agencies of the Government expended the sum of $4,550,000,000, it would be impossible to do so. We are called upon in a variety of ways, to make expenditures in the actual reduction of the sum total of the public debt, over and above the ordinary expenditures, which could not reduce revenues, but neither of these things should happen."

"One of the big tasks before the Ways and Means Committee, it has been explained, is to determine where cuts in expenditures can be made safely and the amounts. Some Republicans of the committee have said that with the $600,000,000 railroad financing plan proposed in the House, it would be possible to cut down materially the $454,200,000 estimate made for payments to railroads. At the Treasury, however, it is explained that the railroad financing plan proposed in the House is dependent on the new revenue law and base its whole attack on them in the next congressional elections. It is too early to know what the Democrats will do about the peace treaty situation. They are waiting to see what formula is brought forth by the Harding administration. The other day, however, Senator Harrison of Mississippi, Democrat, fired the opening gun by inquiring vainly from the Republicans as to whether America was at peace with Germany. The Democrats for the most part are silent, however, while Secretary Hughes conducts his secret negotiations with Germany and the allies. The Democrats will unquestionably decline to accept the Hughes formula, when submitted, on much the same grounds as were adopted by the Republicans against Wilson.

Plan as to Treaty. The Democrats are already beginning to say that the treaty with Germany is not being arrived at very openly and that when the treaty is finally submitted, it will not allow it without the crossing of a sword or the dotting of an "i." Instead, they will endeavor to attach the Versailles covenant with the League of Nations covenant and when that is voted down they will offer the Versailles treaty with the League reservations and call for a vote in an effort to place the Republicans on record as having reversed themselves on foreign policy. The Democrats control more than one-third of the Senate and can block ratification of any treaty. They are saying that the Senate isn't being consulted in advance of the agreements being made with foreign powers and that as a consequence disagreements and reservations will be in order when the Changes Among Voters. The country will see some strange political line-ups before the end of the present session of Congress. Many Western Republicans do not like the idea of repealing the excess profits taxes. Several Democrats will find it necessary to vote for the Republican tax and tariff bills, while a goodly number of Republicans whose constituencies will have been hard hit by the tariff or tax measures will vote against their party.

But broadly speaking, the Democratic party will range itself against the Fordney tariff and the new revenue law and base its whole attack on them in the next congressional elections. 200,000,000 for Shipping Board. The outgo estimate also includes $200,000,000 for the Shipping Board and some leaders say they are determined to trim this total. The outlay for the maintenance of the Government's merchant fleet is giving many members of the House concern and there has been considerable private discussion lately of some plan to ease the drain on the Treasury in that direction.

Opposition to the new taxes suggested by Treasury officers continues to grow with Representative Mondell coming out flatly against increased postage and bank check tax. The Republican leader also has said he doubts either the necessity or the advisability of the automobile tax.

He declared for repeal of the transportation and soda water taxes, the excise tax on automobiles and the higher income surtaxes with additional revenue provided through a five per cent increase in the corporation income tax. According to Charles A. Lyman, secretary-treasurer of the National Board of Farm Organizations, the associations of farmers over the country are preparing to launch a determined fight against repeal of the excess profits tax. These organizations, already have given their views on the question to the Ways and Means Committee and Lyman says if the committee reports a bill with a repeal provision, the farmers will appeal to the agricultural "press" and all other friends in Congress to work for its defeat.

DEMOCRATS SOON TO OPEN FIGHT FOR NEXT CONGRESS

Giving Administration "a Chance," but Will Begin Fire When Tax and Tariff Bills Pass.

WATCHFUL WAITING POLICY ON PEACE

Politics Will Soon Be Re-convened, With Minority in the Senate Able to Block Any Treaty.

By DAVID LAWRENCE, A Special Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch. (Copyright, 1921.)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 5.—Chairman George White has decided to call the Democratic National Committee together some time this autumn for a general discussion of Democratic policy toward the Harding administration.

The time of the meeting has not been fixed, but probably will be immediately after the Republicans have passed a new tax bill and the country has had a chance to learn definitely what has been done by the Republican party on tax revision.

Thus far the Democrats have maintained a policy of passive resistance to Republican doctrines, believing that the country wanted to give the new administration a fair chance to make good without Democratic interference.

Democracy's Line of Attack. The Democratic line of attack against the administration is being laid out by Secretary Mellon's proposals. The Democrats mean merely that people whose incomes are below $6000 a year will be taxed higher than before, while those with incomes above $10,000 will have their taxes reduced. Of course, Secretary Mellon's suggestions have not yet been adopted and the Republicans in Congress may yet deprive the Democrats of much of their ammunition.

The Democrats admit that the Republicans can reduce taxes if they want to, but only by adopting the scheme of Representative Fordney, chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, who is advocating the cutting of taxes radically and leaving the Government with a deficit to be made up after the congressional elections have been held next year.

But in line with the theory that the tax burden should be distributed over a period of years so that future generations may bear a large part of the cost of the war, this policy, however, is opposed by the Democrats, who are anxious to see the Government's borrowing power would be adversely affected by such a plan.

Changes Among Voters. The country will see some strange political line-ups before the end of the present session of Congress. Many Western Republicans do not like the idea of repealing the excess profits taxes. Several Democrats will find it necessary to vote for the Republican tax and tariff bills, while a goodly number of Republicans whose constituencies will have been hard hit by the tariff or tax measures will vote against their party.

INQUIRIES ABOUT REWARD FOR TAKING GOVERNOR SMALL

Massachusetts' Deputy Sheriff "Watching Man Who Is Keeping Shady," and Who Resembles Picture.

By the Associated Press. SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Aug. 5.—Frank A. Minkler, whose letterhead shows him to be a Deputy Sheriff and auctioneer at Great Barrington, Mass., has written Sheriff Meier of Sangamon County that a "suspicious character" he has under surveillance resembles Gov. Small of Illinois, for whom Sheriff Meier holds warrants for embezzlement and conspiracy while State Treasurer.

Sheriff Meier received the following letter from Minkler last night: "Dear Sir—Will you tell me if there is a reward offered for Gov. Len Small, I have a man under watch who resembles Small's picture, and he is a man keeping shady. The man and picture have a resemblance hardly to be mistaken."

"Will you let me know by return mail? Also have you a photograph of Small, as the newspaper photographs may bear no resemblance."

"Very truly yours, Frank A. Minkler."

Sheriff Meier replied that Gov. Small was still in Illinois and that no reward was offered for his capture.

BURGULARS STEAL BRACELET VALUED AT MORE THAN $2000

$800 Pearl Necklace and $30 in Gold Also Taken From Vernon Avenue Home.

A diamond bracelet valued at between $2000 and $3000, taken from a safe deposit box a week ago, was among several articles of jewelry taken by burglars who ransacked the home of William H. Drescher, 5425 Vernon avenue, between 1 and 2 a. m. today.

Drescher awakened at 1:40 a. m. and observed that a light was burning in an adjoining room. Later he noticed that a dresser had been looted. Besides the bracelet, a pearl necklace valued at $800, a $20 gold piece and a $10 gold piece were missing. A gold jewelry case on top of the dresser had not been touched.

A daughter of the family took the bracelet from a safe deposit box a week ago to wear it to a party. She intended to return it to the box today. The burglars got into the house through a first-floor window.

TENANT WINS POSSESSION SUIT

Harry Goetz of 3637A. Lucky street, defendant in a suit for possession of his flat, not only won a legal victory in Justice Reinecke's court today, but obtained two months' rent free and a promise of having his cost of moving paid.

The suit was instituted by John Rhodes, Goetz's landlord, through the law firm of Stuebel, Reinecke and Goetz, who is a partner in the firm. Goetz was based on a notice sent to Goetz to give up his flat June 1. Goetz established the fact that he had paid his rent up to July 1 and therefore proved that the notice to vacate was not legal.

To save the trouble of serving another notice and filing another suit the plaintiff agreed to let Goetz have the flat free until Sept. 1, and further agreed to pay his expense of moving, as that time through his attorney, J. F. O'Donnell, of the Legal Aid Bureau, accepted the proposition.

VON BERNSTORFF'S WIFE GETS $1,100,000 BACK

Money and Securities Held by Alien Custodian Inherited From American Father.

By the Associated Press. NEW YORK, Aug. 5.—Countess von Bernstorff, wife of the former German Ambassador to the United States, again has possession of the $1,100,000 in money and securities seized in 1917 by the Alien Property Custodian, it was learned today.

Return of the property was made yesterday by the Bankers Trust Co., the Custodian's depository, under an order of the District of Columbia Supreme Court.

Issuance of this order followed hearings held here in which the Countess established the fact that she was an American citizen prior to her marriage, having been Johanna Luckemeyer, daughter of a pioneer New York silk merchant, and that she inherited her money from her father.

An amendment to the trading with the enemy act provided for return of funds seized under such circumstances.

SENATE PASSES BILL TO AID FARMERS IN EXPORTING PRODUCE

Measure Provides for War Finance Corporation to Furnish Credit.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 5.—Another farmers' relief measure, the administration plan for Government aid in supplying credit for exportation of agricultural products, was passed by the Senate yesterday and sent to the House.

The bill was a substitute for the original Norris bill and provides for the War Finance Corporation to furnish the export credits. The Norris bill, which proposed new government credit organization, was laid aside formally and the substitute, in charge of Senator McNary, Republican, Oregon, for the Agriculture Committee, was passed without a roll call.

The substitute plan was drafted by Secretary Hoover of the Department of Commerce and Director Meyer of the War Finance Corporation. It was adopted virtually intact yesterday, the bill authorizing the War Finance Corporation to make loans to agricultural associations, banks and trust companies. The bill makes no change in the corporation's cash capital of $600,000,000 but reduces from $3,000,000,000 to $2,000,000,000 the authorized maximum of bonds it may issue, this according to Director Meyer, will be more than sufficient.

Through loans to banks on agricultural collateral it is expected that the bill's influence will be mostly felt by expansion of credit available to farmers.

In disposing of final amendments, the Senate rejected riders of Western senators to extend privileges of the Federal farm loan system to entry of Government-owned reclamation projects. Assurance for future action in a separate bill, however, were given.

YOUTH AND GIRL IN AUTO SHOT AFTER SCREAMS

Pair Wounded by Young Missourian Attempting Rescue in Lane on Property at Night.

Special to the Post-Dispatch. WARRENSBURG, Mo., Aug. 5.—Frank Hunt, a Higginsville youth, and Miss Helen Renick of Oak Grove, Mo., are in a Warrensburg hospital. The youth is seriously wounded and may die. The girl's wounds are slight. The wounds were inflicted by another youth, Lane Horton, with a shotgun.

Horton, who resides with his parents, E. O. Horton and wife, three miles southeast of Warrensburg, awoke his father and mother about 10 o'clock Wednesday night, telling them that a woman screaming through a corn field toward the house. The parents also heard the screaming and located the sounds in a lane near their home.

The older Horton told his son to call the officers from Warrensburg on the telephone. The screaming woman continued and the mother urged the men to go to the rescue. The youth then ran to a neighbor's house and borrowed a shotgun and, with his father, started through a corn field toward the screaming woman.

Lacey Horton outdistanced his father and when 30 yards from the lane, fired a heavy charge of shot which struck Hunt, who, with the woman, was in an automobile. Hunt was shot in the side and scattering lead struck Miss Renick.

Young Horton, after finding the pair wounded, drove the automobile to a Warrensburg hospital.

PROTESTS ON HAY AND GRAIN RATES MADE TO COMMISSION

Linneus Grover Compares Market Price to Cost of Delivering to the Produce.

JEFFERSON CITY, Aug. 5.—The Public Service Commission is holding a hearing today on hay and grain rates, which are said by farmers to be so high that they cannot make their crops without loss. Farmers' representatives, representing agricultural organizations, stock producers, farmers and elevator men, have been called. There are also a number of affidavits filed by the Missouri Farm Bureau Federation.

One of these affidavits, made by W. B. Calvert of Linneus, Mo., states that he has on hand 120 tons of 1920 timothy which would sell him $13.72 a ton on board car at Linneus. The freight to Kansas City, the nearest market, is $4.40 a ton, making the total cost $17.12, whereas the market price is $12.50, which is $4.62 less than cost.

ORLANDO, Fla., Aug. 5.—Miss Lena Clarke, postmistress at West Palm Beach, who is being held here by the police in connection with the death Monday of W. B. Millmore, restaurant proprietor, declared yesterday, according to the police, that if she shot Millmore she "does not remember it." Miss Clarke, the authorities had previously declared, had confessed to the murder, which occurred in a hotel room reserved by her.

The alleged confession as made public by the local police and by postal inspectors described the attempt of the postmistress to make good shortages in her accounts, for some of which, she averred, Millimore was responsible. The statement given out by the police as alleged to have been made by Miss Clarke, declared that it was for the purpose of obtaining a signed statement that she met him in the hotel room.

Millmore's body was found soon after the postmistress had told the police that she had found the man responsible for the robbery of more than $10,000 from the West Palm Beach office.

The first shortage in her accounts occurred in December, 1917, Miss Clarke told postoffice inspectors, when $38,000 of war savings stamps funds disappeared. Later $20,000 in concealed money under receipts disappeared from the office. This happened while both Miss Clarke and Millmore were employed there and while both were applicants for the position of postmistress.

West Palm Beach First Heard of WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., Aug.

that F. A. Millmore, a restaurant keeper there, and former employe of the West Palm Beach Postoffice, had been found dead in her room with a bullet wound through his heart.

Then the postal inspector, who had been here since Saturday, gave out the story of the robbery, which had been brought to their attention when postices opened at Atlanta.
They were found to contain substitute packages of cup paper instead of the currency the tags showed they should contain.

Miss Clarke disappeared from here Monday morning without the knowledge of the inspectors, who had already accused her and asked her to confess. The first word received was when Chief of Police Vetzel phoned them that the woman had come to him and told him that she had Millmore under a drug in her room at the hotel, having gone to Orlando to see him in connection with the mail robbery. She was arrested on order of the postal inspector and when the police went to her room Millmore was found shot instead of drugged. The coroner's jury held her for the murder, although she steadfastly denied any knowledge of it up to the time of her alleged confession.

Miss Clarke is the daughter of a retired Congregational minister. of her aged parents have been leaders in reform and church work and Miss Clarke has been a generous supporter of charities and was an ardent war worker. She has been the main support of her family for years.

15-YEAR-OLD BRIDE OF DAY SWALLOWS POISON

Girl Found by Parents Reveals Wedding in Note When She Tries to Die.

Moans from the room of their daughter, Bernice, 15 years old, attracted the attention at 9 o'clock last night of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Blattner in their home at 4736 Michigan avenue.

They found their daughter on a bed with a bottle that had contained poison near by, together with a note in which she said that earlier in the day she had been married to Edward McGuire, 22, of 6007 South Broadway, in East Alton. The note said: "I have not been the daughter you thought I was," and protested several times that there was no need for causing anyone else any trouble.

The girl is at the city hospital in a serious condition. She said she had obtained the poison in her home. Her father said that there had been no poison of the kind she swallowed in the house.

McGuire was arrested at his home.
He said he had married the girl, and said that he could give no reason for her act.

FEW REPLIES FROM RUSSIA TO
'ANSWER PREPAID' TELEGRAMS

Money Piles Up in Telegraph Office; Use of Lines Restricted to Few Persons.

RIGA, Latvia, July 17.—Although Russia has been in open telegraph communication with the outside world for some months since the Russian-English and various other trade agreements were signed, few telegrams ever come out of Russia in response to the thousands that are sent in, say officials of the telegraph administration in Riga and Rostov.
Most of the telegrams are routed through these two cities, which are in direct wire communication with Moscow and Petrograd.

"We have a good deal of money on hand unused in connection with 'answer prepaid' cablegrams from America and elsewhere," said an official of the Riga telegraph department. "Telegrams by the hundreds have been sent in to Russia with answer prepaid, but very few of the answers have come."

Only certain persons are allowed to telegraph in Russia, it is understood here, and to gain the privilege of replying takes much time. During the person is subjected to a complete investigation as to the reason he could possibly want to telegraph.

Corporation Tax Reduction Signed.

JEFFERSON CITY, Aug. 5.—Gov.
Hyde yesterday signed the committee substitute for House bill No. 11, reducing the corporation tax from one-tenth to one-twentieth per cent on capital stock and assets. The reduction will be 50 cents per $1,000, the former tax having been $1, and the tax under the new bill 50 cents.
The bill also specifically exempts bank deposits. Under the old bill they could have been taxed, but they were not.

WARRANT CHARGING ASSAULT ISSUED AGAINST COUNTY DEPUTY

Pine Lawn Man Says He Was Struck by W. C. D. Mayes at Olive Street Inn.

An information was issued today by Prosecuting Attorney Mueller of St. Louis County against Deputy Sheriff W. C. D. Mayes, charging him with common assault on Paul H. Stephansky, 26 years old, of 6217 Sixton place, Pine Lawn.

Stephansky complained that at 11:30 p. m. Wednesday, he and a friend stopped their motorcycles at Capri's Inn on the Olive street road and were looking for another friend's machine when Mayes and two other men came out and asked them what they were doing there.

"Who wants to know?" asked Ste-phansky. Mayes struck him, Ste-phansky said, and pressed his revolver against Stephansky's body.

Stephansky then, for the first time, saw Mayes' star. Mayes drove away, and Stephansky said he went to the Sheriff's office and complained, and was locked up. Next morning Mayes released him and told him to keep quiet about it or he would get into more trouble the next time he was arrested, Stephansky said.

$540 CHECK FORGERY
CHARGED TO FOREMAN

Three Indictments Returned Here Against Kenneth Brown, Arrested in Detroit.

Forgery of 12 checks for $45 each, or a total of $540, is charged in three indictments returned yesterday against Kenneth Brown, 29 years old, a foreman for the Mineral Refining and Chemical Co., Missouri Pacific Railroad tracks and the River des Peres. Brown was arrested by Pinkerton detectives in Detroit yesterday and he will be brought to St.
Louis.

During a suspension of operation, the mineral company has been giving part-time employment at odd work to many of its employes, and during a recent week Brown was employed to act as a watchman. In that time, J. C. Murray, cashier of the company, noted the disappearance of a book of pay checks of the company.

Shortly thereafter, checks bearing Murray's forged signature began to be presented at the Lafayette South Side Bank by persons who had cashed them in the belief that they were genuine.

The 12 checks forged were cashed by nine different persons. Among these were George Trotter, 7913 South Broadway; T. E. Sessauer, 401 Marceau street, and Larry Schutler, 7528 South Broadway, who gave testimony before the grand jury yesterday resulting in the indictment of Brown.

BATHHOUSE PROPRIETOR FREED

Policemen Fail to Make "Mashing" Case Against Ivan Skobel.

Ivan Skobel, 60 years old, proprietor of a Russian bath house at 3945 Olive street, whose wife, Fannie, was rescued last week from under a stairway in a swimming pool in the bath house, where, she said, he had thrown her, was discharged today in Police Court where he was arraigned on a charge of "mashing."

Two policemen, who preferred the charge, testified that Skobel accused them with "hello, girls" as they were passing his bathhouse the night of July 19 and that he invited them into the house. Skobel denied the charge. He said that he was exercising his poodle dog when the policemen accosted him and asked for permission to inspect his gymnasium. He said that while he was showing them about two policemen entered and arrested him.

AGENT LIVED IN PLACE AS PATIENT

Immoral Women Said to Overrun Place at Johnson City, Tenn.—Loaded Dice, Marked Cards Told Of.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 5.—Conditions at the Johnson City, Tenn., Old Soldiers' Home, where former service men are receiving hospital treatment, are so deplorable that unless Congress acts immediately, the casualties there will be proportionately higher than occurred in the world war, Director Forbes of the Bureau of War Risk Insurance declared yesterday before a Senate committee.

Agents of the bureau have just completed a secret investigation of the institution, in which are quartered nearly 850 former service men, and Col. Forbes declared he has been living under astounding conditions of vice, corruption and immorality.

The war risk head brought as a witness M. P. McInerney, the agent who made the investigation and who lived for a week as a "patient" at the home. The latter told the committee of having bought morphine, moonshine whisky and extract of ginger containing 55 per cent alcohol, on the home reservation; declared that intoxication was common among the former service men, and asserted that immoral women over-ran the grounds on which the institution is located.

Arms Carried by Patients.
The witness said he had encountered many patients who carried weapons and defied the guards to take the firearms away. There was absolutely no discipline, he added, and the guards were the place to the extent of forcing the executive officers to withdraw the guards from the dining room. Loaded dice and marked cards, he declared, were supplied by patients from the outside and the patients "drained" of the money given them by the Government.

As McInerney told of his week's experience, Senator Walsh, Democrat, of Massachusetts, demanded that the situation be laid before Attorney-General Dougherty for action. The Senator declared that all of those in authority at the home, and whom he said had appeared to have permitted the condition to continue, should be indicted for malfeasance in office.

Place Called "Hell House."
No action was taken by the committee, however, but Walsh declared and needed additional guards, who could take from it the horses men to "such hell houses has got to stop." Col. Forbes again explained that his bureau was unable to correct the evils because of lack of jurisdiction over the Soldiers' Home, which is administered by the Federal board controlling all such institutions. He declared he felt it his duty to make public his findings, however, in order that public sentiment might wipe out the "curse" which he said his investigation had showed to exist.

The institution, the director said, was inadequately officered, did not have sufficient doctors and nurses
and needed additional guards, who
could take from it the horses which, he said, daily marched on to the prey that awaited them among the patients, many of whom, he added, were "mentally not responsible for their acts." He pleaded for welfare societies to lend their aid.

UNION ELECTRIC OFFERS TO SELL CABLES TO THE CITY

Company Asks $220,000 for System in the Downtown District.

The proposition of Director Public Utilities Hooke to purchase the underground cable system of the Union Electric Light and Power Co., which is in the downtown section, and erect new light standards was under consideration this afternoon by the municipal bond supervisory board.

Louis H. Egan, president of the Union Electric Light and Power Co., told the board that the company would be glad to sell the cable to the city for approximately $220,- 000, but he said the present light standards would have to be scrapped.
Hooke's idea is to install asymmetric refractors in place of the lamps now being used in the district east of Jefferson avenue and between Washington avenue and Market street.

Hyde last night signed the road bill passed by the special session of the Legislature, according to an announcement today. The measure provides for a State bond issue of the highways and roads in Missouri.

The Governor intimated that it would be several days before he would appoint the four highway provides.

FOUR CHILDREN
BURN TO DEATH IN TENEMENT FIRE

Seven Other Persons Seriously Injured in New York Conflagration — Many Rescued by Firemen.

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Aug. 5.—Four children were burned to death and seven other persons were seriously injured in an early morning fire which swept three tenement houses in the Bronx this morning.

The dead were: Victoria Corrine, 14; Harry Corrine, 8; Edna Corrine, 10; and William Corrine, 5, all children of Julio Corrine, who lived on the top floor of the tenement in which the fire started. Corrine escaped.

Andrew Taylor, his wife, Catharine, and their four children, who lived on the third floor of the same tenement, suffered severe burns.
The youngest child, Herbert, is reported to be dying in a hospital from inhalation fumes.

Rose Fitzpatrick, who lived with her family on the fourth floor of this tenement, also was severely burned.
The fire spread quickly from the kitchen in which it started to two adjoining tenements, and when firemen reached the scene they found more than a score of panic-stricken women and children crowded before the windows crying for aid.

Aerial ladders were run up and firemen began bringing the scantily clad women and children down to safety.

BARRETT TO DECIDE WHO SHALL BE SUED IN LAND PURCHASE

Hyde Instructs Attorney-General to Proceed to Recover $27,000 Paid by State.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
JEFFERSON CITY, Aug. 5.—
It is for Attorney-General Barrett to decide who shall be sued for recovery of the $27,000 paid by the State for 18 acres of land for Lincoln University at Jefferson City.
Gov. Hyde today dictated a letter to Barrett instructing him to proceed by appropriate action to recover the money and if there is sufficient evidence at hand to prove criminality, that any guilty party is to be vigorously prosecuted.

In his letter the Governor says: "I cordially agree with the legislative committee that the transaction was a shameful fraud. Neither you nor I can countenance such a transaction nor spare any offender in it."

In the transaction the Board of Curators bought for $27,000 land which is said to be worth not more than $10,000. The purchase was made from W. M. Ruwart of Jefferson City, through Howard Cook, who operated under an option, under which he got $9,000 of the purchase price. The Legislature appointed a committee to investigate and it reported that the transaction was a fraud.

CUNLIFF TELLS EXPENDITURE
PLANS FOR FARM AND HOSPITAL

Proposed Division Gives $700,000 to Feeble-Minded Home, $400,000 to Koch Institution.

Director of Public Welfare Cunliff today made public his plan for expenditure of $1,100,000 for the establishment of a municipal farm for the feeble-minded and the enlargement of Koch hospital for the treatment of tuberculosis, the money having been provided at the last bond issue election.

His division of the money between the two projects is $700,000 for the municipal farm $400,000 for Koch hospital. This division already has been approved by the Citizens' Bond Issue Committee and only the approval of the Board of Estimate and Apportionment, in this instance a perfunctory proceeding, remains necessary for the work to proceed.

Police Find 10-Gallon Still.

Rudolph Gakaria, 28 years old, of 6781 Vernon avenue, St. Louis County, a coal miner, was arrested at noon today by Constable Jules Schoenbein of Central Township after a 10-gallon copper still and about 15 gallons of corn whisky had been found in Gakaria's home. The prisoner said he had been manufacturing whisky for his own use.

FIRST ICE CREAM
SODA RESULT OF A THUNDERSTORM

Detroit Man Tells How Grandfather Concocted Drink for Wedding Party.

By the Associated Press.
DETROIT, Mich., Aug. 4.—A summer thunderstorm 41 years ago resulted in the "invention" of the ice cream soda, according to Fred Sanders Jr., of Detroit, whose grandfather, Fred Sanders, claimed the distinction of having discovered this American institution.

Speaking of his grandfather's discovery, Sanders said:

"Forty years ago the American people regarded ice cream much as the ill that could not be painted.
At that time they took it straight.
Syrups were in general use in drink concoctions but the ice cream sun-dae and its many near relatives were unknown. Carbonated water was used by the soda dispensers in a popular drink known as sweet cream soda. Its chief ingredient was sweet cream, direct from the farm.
The thunderstorm that brought about my grandfather's discovery came in the summer of 1880. He was conducting a soft drink parlor and the storm caused the sweet cream he had intended for soda to sour.
Just after the storm passed a wedding party dropped in and my grandfather volunteered to experiment until he found a substitute drink. He tried several drinks and finally concocted one almost identical with the ice cream soda of today.

"Members of the party liked the new drink so well that it became popular within a short time and soon all dealers were making the soda."

proclamation of amnesty which will apply to all adherents of former President Carranza now in the United States who recently signed a manifesto expressing good will toward

The newspaper says it has received semiofficial information to

ARTHUR E. RUMP TO GET FEDERAL RELIEF

Former Postoffice Employee Injured in Service to Receive $66 Per Month.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 5.—The Senate today passed a bill, introduced by Senator Spencer, to extend the benefits of the employers' liability act to Arthur E. Rump, a former employee of the St. Louis postoffice, so that he would receive $66 a month for the rest of his life. Spencer told the Senate that Rump was the worst injured man he had ever seen. In May, 1902, he was struck by a mail sack when working in the St. Louis office, receiving severe injuries to his neck and spine. His affliction spread all over his body, till he could use only one finger. He was able with this to lift the receiver from a telephone at his bedside and thus earned a bare subsistence by soliciting magazine subscriptions.

Finally, he lost the use of this finger. In 1912, Congress, recognizing that Rump's injury was caused by the negligence of a fellow employee, awarded him $2000. The Senate committee on claims reported recently that the relief already granted was wholly inadequate and recommended that he be given the benefits of the liability act of 1916.
His compensation to date from the passage of the present relief bill. The Senate passed the measure without debate after Spencer had explained the case.

Rump lives at 6243 Columbia avenue. He has been called the champion optimist of St. Louis, despite his complete disability and he has been the subject of several newspaper articles.

the inquest over Adolph Rokyta, shoe repairer, who was found dead with his throat cut in his shop at 1224 Cass avenue last Tuesday.

The inquest, which started Wednesday, was continued twice, to give the police time to introduce additional evidence, but none was submitted and no new witnesses were on hand when the case was called today.

POISON IN THREE EXHUMED BODIES

Two More Bodies of Members of Chicago Family to Be Examined—Woman Questioned.

By the Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Aug. 5.—Two more bodies are to be exhumed in the investigation of the deaths of the Kolze family, Coroner Hoffman announced today, in the effort to trace down what county officials assert may be a series of murders.

Coroner Hoffman ordered exhumed the body of Mrs. Lena Kolze, an aged member of the family. If her body shows traces of arsenic, as did those of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kolze and John Demmer, whose widow, Mrs. Mary Demmer, has been questioned, Coroner Hoffman said he would examine a fifth body, not related to the Kolze family, but em-balmied by the same undertakers.

The undertakers assert their embalming fluid does not contain arsenic.

Mrs. Mary Demmer, housekeeper of Fred Kolze after the deaths of her husband and of Mrs. Kolze, is being detained by the authorities in connection with the case.

Mrs. Demmer was said to have admitted caring for her husband and Mr. and Mrs. Kolze prior to their deaths and also was said to have admitted her liking for Fred Kolze and her jealousy of him, but denied the poisoning of any of the three.

John Demmer died about nine years ago and Mrs. Kolze died nine months later. Mrs. Demmer then became housekeeper for Fred Kolze, whose death occurred several weeks ago.

Frank Mrazek, a bottler, living at 3400 Gravois avenue, St. Louis County, was fined $300 and costs for manufacturing liquor by Judge Wade in the Federal Court today within 36 hours after prohibition enforcement agents visited Mrazek's home.
Mrazek pleaded guilty.

Enforcement agents Wednesday night found a dismantled still of 35-gallon capacity and four empty barrels in the Mrazek home. Mrazek was away, but his wife told the officers that she and her husband had been making whiskey until about three weeks ago, when a Deputy Sheriff telephoned and told them to stop making it or he would have to arrest them.

Judge Wade told Mrazek that on the payment of $100 and costs within 30 days he would remit the remaining $200.

"If you get back into the game and the officers bring you in you'll have to pay the balance in addition to your fine," Judge Wade added.

Judge Wade also fined James J.
Masucci, 100 South Fourth street, $300 and costs on his plea of guilty of selling a half pint of whiskey July 9 to prohibition enforcement agents.

After learning that Masucci's previous record was good and that he was a man of family, Judge Wade said that on the payment of $100 and costs within 30 days he would remit the remaining $200. He added that if the defendant appears again before him the $200 will be added to his fine.

GRAPE WINE SEIZED IN COUNTY

"Home Brew" Found at Another of Eight Places Visited.

Federal prohibition enforcement agents, lead by E. J. Hoover, agent in charge, last night visited eight county saloons, finding what they regard as evidence of violations of the Volstead act in two.

In the saloon of Andrew J. Bosch, 963 North and South road, Brentwood, they found five cases of home-brew beer, which they destroyed, and arrested Bosch. At the wine garden of Martin Kottler, 220 Ellen avenue, which is 9200 south and east of Broadway, they took for analysis five barrels of grape wine and ordered Kottler to report to them today.

An automobile driven by Mrs. Anna G. Merz, of 5633 Theodosia avenue, after striking a wagon

Morris Scheer, 20, a huckster, was knocked off the wagon, suffering cuts and bruises. Mrs. Merz was uninjured. BENEFIT BY LOYALTY LEAGUE FOR MILK FUND

Cast of 300 Children to Take Part in Performance at Orpheum, Aug. 27.

Preparations are well under way for an elaborate benefit performance to be given by Children of America Loyalty League at the Orpheum Theater on the evening of Aug. 27, to aid the tenement babies of St. Louis by furthering the work of the Post-Dispatch Pure Milk and Free Ice Fund. It will be the largest affair ever given in the city of St. Louis entirely by children to help children, for approximately 200 performers will be in the cast.

Members of the Children of America Loyalty League organization, composed of several thousand children, are well known for their unusually successful war and post-war work among the soldiers at mobilization camps and reconstruction hospitals. Scarcely a week passes that a group of them does not visit recuperating war heroes and distribute flowers, cigarettes or candy, and entertain for a few hours the boys whom in the rush and hurry of daily life other persons are prone to forget.

Martin Beck, president of the Orpheum Circuit, through E. J. Sullivan, his St. Louis representative, has given the Orpheum Theater, including all seats, absolutely free for the evening. This is the first time that the Orpheum has ever been given over to any organization working for a charitable purpose, and the boys and girls are very proud of their privilege to aid the great summer charity for which the Post-Dispatch annually appeals to the more fortunate persons of St. Louis.

The program is to be given in true Orpheum fashion, consisting of sixteen vaudeville numbers from the various schools of expression, dancing and music of St. Louis. The acts have been chosen with great care, each teacher giving her most talented pupils, many of whom will creditably bear comparison with professionals. Tickets for the entertainment will be placed on sale within a few days.

WOMAN GETS $310,000 ESTATE OF DOCTOR

Brothers and Sisters of Dr. H. S. Kinmonth, Asbury Park, N. Y., Lose Will Contest.

By Licensed Wire From the New York Bureau of the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, Aug. 5.—Miss Violet Remsen Humphries of Spring Lake, N. J., will receive the $310,000 estate of Dr. Hugh S. Kinmonth of Asbury Park through the admission of the physician's will to probate at Freehold, N. J., yesterday. Dr. Kinmonth committed suicide in July, 1920, and the attempt to probate his will was contested by his two brothers and two sisters, Miss Humphries. It is understood, was a close friend of Dr. Kinmonth. She is about 30 years old and lives with her father, Dr. Kinmonth, who was also a druggist and real estate operator, was said to have been a suitor of Miss Humphries' mother.

The will was made in April, 1918, and makes Miss Humphries practically the sole beneficiary. In contesting it the brothers and sisters of the physician alleged undue influence, lack of testamentary capacity and failure to comply with statutory requirements.

Dr. Kinmonth at the time of his death was well past middle age, his first wife had died and his second had divorced him.

The contestants of the will were Dr. William L. Kinmonth of Belmar, N. J.; J. Kinmonth of Mount Pleasant, Ia.; Mrs. Elizabeth Hamilton of Mount Pleasant and Miss Anna B. Kinmonth of Delphi, N. Y.

In Spring Lake Miss Humphries refused to discuss the case with newspaper men. "I have no time to give you," she said. "I have many things to do."

NINE MEN ARRESTED BY THE POLICE ON LIQUOR CHARGES

"Home Brew," Moonshine Whisky and Still Seized in Raids on Homes and Saloons.

William T. Cordes, proprietor of a saloon at 1401 Salisbury street, and Robert Gunn, residing above the saloon, were arrested last night when policemen found a quantity of "home brew" on the back porch of Gunn's flat and in a shed in the rear of the saloon. Two bottles of the beverage also were found behind the bar in the saloon. Cordes said he had nothing to do with the beer found in the shed.

Bruno Pogorzelski of 2121 North Thirteenth street, owner of a saloon at Fourteenth and Montgomery streets, was arrested in the evening, after policemen had found two quart bottles containing what they believed to be whisky in a safe in the saloon.

A copper still, several jugs filled with "moonshine," several empty jugs, a sack of sugar, a sack of corn and two empty barrels were seized by the police last night in a building in the rear of 1436 South Third street. Neighbors said they did not know who had occupied the place.

Policemen raided the saloon and living quarters of Thomas J. Hearty at 520 Hickory street at 4:30 p. m., and confiscated several cases of "home brew." Hearty and his porter were arrested.

Albert Gregg, a bartender, of 1524 Pine street, and Thomas Sterling of Venice, Ill., were arrested at 4 p. m., at Ninth and Salisbury streets, when a policeman found a quantity of "white mule" and a pint bottle containing a liquid. They had just crossed the McKinley Bridge on a street car.

Charles Kuchan and John Stimpich of 1012 South Third street, were arrested at 4 p. m., following a search of their home by policemen which resulted in the finding of five one-gallon jugs of "moonshine" whisky in the cellar.

WILL CLASSIFY "REALTORS" IN CITY AND PHONE DIRECTORIES

Future issues of the St. Louis City directory and the telephone directories will contain "Realtors" as a new classification. Persons and firms so classified will be active members of the St. Louis Real Estate Exchange who had paid their dues up to the date when the directory went to press.

The plan, says J. W. Hahnauer, president of the exchange, is to draw a distinction between those who are qualified realtors and those who are not. He suggests, in a letter to members, that it will offer to the public a needed protection and prove a benefit to realtors.

The term realtor is copyrighted and is restricted by court decisions to the use of real estate brokers who are members of a local exchange or board, which in turn is a member of the National Association of Real Estate Boards. It is designed to draw a distinction between real estate brokers who are bound by the ethics of the association and those who are not.

SUIT TO BREAK WILL FILED

Mrs. Carrie Hoffman of 4358 Penrose street and Mrs. Minnie Ochsner, 4616 St. Ferdinand avenue, yesterday filed suit to break the will of their brother, Frederick C. Steger, who died last February at Phoenix, Ariz., leaving an estate inventoried at more than $80,000. Steger was unmarried and bequeathed his entire estate, except $1 each to the two plaintiffs and two brothers, to his sister, Miss Mary Steger, of 3205 Bailey avenue.

It is alleged that Mary prevented the other sisters from seeing Frederick and that she influenced him in the making of his will. Steger formerly lived at De Soto, Mo., and also in this city, where he owned realty.

DECLINE IN NUMBER EMPLOYED IN JULY BY 1428 FIRMS

Increases in Employment in Manufacturing of Vehicles and Textiles, Labor Department Reports.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 5.—A decrease in employment in July of 1.1 per cent was shown by the payrolls of 1428 firms, each employing 500 or more workers, in 65 principal industrial centers, according to figures made public yesterday by the Department of Labor. The net decrease shown by the payrolls was 16,914.

Increases in employment were shown in the manufacture of vehicles for land transportation, railroads, repair shops, leather, textiles, lumber, tobacco, paper and printing. Practically all other major industrial activities showed decreases, the statement said.

Where there has been improvement, it continued, it has been directly or indirectly traceable to the harvest and other seasonal agricultural activities.

"Other bright spots in a mixed and somewhat perplexing industrial situation are the continued vitality of textiles and widespread gains in the building trades," the statement said. "General building operations of textiles and widespread gains in the building trades," the statement said. "General building operations of textiles and widespread gains in the building trades," the statement said.

Industries involving metals and metal products present a "darker side of the picture," the statement said.

Why My Friends All Take Yeast Vitamon Tablets Now

To Make Firm Flesh, Increase Energy and Beautify the Complexion

"Just as my friends all started to talk about the wonderful health and beauty-giving properties of the vitamins in yeast and other raw foods, I heard about the highly concentrated form of true yeast-vitamins called Vitamon. Once I started taking two of these yeast tablets with every meal I noticed results almost immediately. Others did too, for people began remarking about how well I looked—how much younger and prettier—and to say I felt better doesn't half express the truly amazing improvement. I have gained several pounds, my flesh is firm, my nerves are calm and there seems to be no end to my new found energy. Now my friends who so admired the change in me are all turning to the concentrated yeast Vitamon tablets and not only find them easy and economical to take, but results are so surprisingly quick."

The enthusiasm of this writer is like that of thousands for Vitamon contains not only highly concentrated yeast-vitamins, but the two other well more important vitamins (Fat soluble A and Water soluble C) which makes a proper dose to build firm tissue, strong nerves, rich blood and a keen, active brain. It will not cause gas or upset the stomach but on the contrary is a great aid to digestion and in overcoming chronic constipation. Boils and skin eruptions seem to vanish like magic under this healthful purifying influence, leaving the skin fresh, clear and beautiful. So remarkable are the benefits from these highly concentrated Vitamon tablets that entire satisfaction is absolutely guaranteed or the small amount you pay for the trial will be promptly refunded. Be sure to remember the name VITAMON—the original and genuine yeast-vitamine tablet—there is nothing else like it.

Why Castoria?
YEARS ago Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups were the remedies in common use for Infants and Children; Castor Oil so nauseating as to be almost impossible and the others all containing Opium in one form or another, but so disguised as to make them pleasant to the taste, yet really to stupefy the child and give the appearance of relief from pain.

It required years of research to find a purely vegetable combination that would take the place of these disagreeable, unpleasant and vicious remedies that from habit had become almost universal. This was the inception of, and the reason for, the introduction of Fletcher's Castoria, and for over 30 years it has proven its worth, received the praise of Physicians everywhere and become a household word among mothers.

A remedy ESPECIALLY prepared for Infants and Children and no mother would think of giving to her baby a remedy that she would use for herself, without consulting a physician.

SLIDING RATES

As you all know, Union Electric's residence lighting rates (except in 1919, when coal prices went kiting) have always "slid" one way or downward. In 1912 the average price paid by our St. Louis residence lighting customers per kilowatt hour of energy used was 8.89 cents. This year their average rate is 5.37 cents. We doubt whether residence lighting customers in any other large American city are being served as cheaply. We take too much pride in the quality of Union Electric service to admit for a minute that any other city is being served better than St. Louis.

But there is a group of Union Electric customers—the power buyers—whose rates have slid both ways. Sixty per cent of the Company's power sales are made under contracts which provide that the rates shall rise and fall with the Company's coal and labor costs. Customers of this big group cheerfully paid higher rates when coal and labor costs were rising; they are now getting lower rates as these costs decline.

No kicking. No gouging. No wrangling before the Public Service Commission. Just plain old-fashioned fair play, working both ways, and fully understood by both parties. These big men know that a prosperous, efficient, growing electric service system is indispensable to their own growth and the community's. Their good will, expressed in fair and friendly co-operation, is one of the valued assets of this business. The thousands of St. Louis district savings investors who have bought, and are still buying, Union Electric 7% preferred shares, are safeguarded by this friendly attitude of the business leaders of the community toward this Company.

These shares cost $100 each and are always salable at that price. Each share pays a cash dividend of $1.75 by mail, every three months. You can buy them on time payments—$11 first payment and $10 a month for 9 months on each share, and get 7% interest on your payments.

ture and Commerce for improving Japan's foreign trade:
"First, effect a reduction in the cost of production and a decline in the prices of commodities by lifting the ban on the export of gold and silver, by encouraging investments abroad and by enhancing the efficiency of production."

"Second, increase the supply of low interest funds among traders and make banks buy cheap bills convertible at as long a period as possible."

The chamber also recommends rules for preventing unreasonable competition in selling goods in foreign markets, the establishment of a trade bureau in the center of Japan as an independent institution for encouraging and facilitating foreign trade, the adoption of the export credit scheme as in England, the opening of a steamship service for the Black Sea, the East Mediterranean and the Persian Gulf, and the lowering of foreign telegraphic charges.

Farm Workers Thrown From Moving Freight in Kansas— One Man Dead, Three in Hospitals.

By the Associated Press.

WICHITA, Kan., Aug. 5.—A man whose home is supposed to have been in Red Fork, Ok., is dead, and Oliver Dandridge, Wellston, Ok., a negro; Henry Dunn, Little Rock, Ark., and Curtis Quale, McQueen, Ark., the latter two white, are in hospitals here as the result of a shooting affray aboard a freight train running between Kechi and Furley, Kan., Wednesday night.

According to the wounded men, the shooting took place when two men attempted to rob 10 harvest hands on the train. Dandridge, Dunn and Quale, former soldiers, opened fire and the would-be robbers returned it. The man killed is said to have been one of those who attempted the robbery. Dandridge is seriously wounded, while the injuries of the others are slight.

Police are holding three negroes and two white youths for investigation in connection with the shooting.
They say the man killed has been tentatively identified as Fred Gossom.

The wounded men said that while the fight was in progress one of the would-be robbers threw several of the harvest hands from the train.
The fight continued, they said, until all of the harvest hands had either fled or been thrown off. When the train arrived at Marion, Kan., the body of the man supposed to be Gossom was found in a coal car. Train-men investigated and ran the train back. Near Kechi they found Dandridge lying beside the track. Further along they found Dunn. The latter is about 28 years old. His injuries consist of a lacerated face and one arm and jaw broken.

JUDGE WADE REFUSES TO HEAR MOTION FOR NEW U. R. RECEIVER

Says Similar Motion, Filed by Sea-man's Attorneys, Is Pending Before Judge Faris.

Judge Wade in the United States District Court today refused to hear a motion filed Wednesday by attorneys for John W. Seaman asking that a new receiver be appointed for the United Railways Co. under the title of Seaman's receivership suit.
The judge said a similar motion was pending before Judge Faris and he saw no reason why he should pass upon the questions involved. He ruled that possible foreclosure by bondholders of the Suburban system did not constitute an emergency calling for an immediate hearing. He gave the Seaman attorneys leave to file the motion for hearing by Judge Faris, who is on a vacation.

Two Robbers Foiled When They Attack Albert C. Druey, on Way to a Bank.

Albert C. Druey of 2662 California avenue, a clerk employed by the Freund Brothers Dry Goods Co., 1560 South Broadway, was on his way to the Lafayette-South Side Bank, Broadway and Lafayette avenue, with a bag containing $800 in currency and checks when two men stopped him at Broadway and Sou-lard street at 2 p. m. yesterday.

"Give us that bag," commanded one of the men, striking Druey on the chest with his fist, while the other tugged at the bag beneath Druey's arm. Druey jerked back and punched the first robber in the face. The robber retaliated with a blow on Druey's nose and the latter yelled for help.

Several merchants ran from their stores and the robbers fled east on Souland street, after which Druey proceeded on his journey to the bank with the money.

Olive Street Drug Store Is Held Up by Two Negroes.

Two negroes entered Abramson's drug store, 3000 Olive street, at 10:30 p. m., and asked the clerk, Stephen Guttman of 5840 Page boulevard, for a package of cigarettes.
One of the negroes threw a dollar bill on the counter and when Gut-tman had made the change drew a revolver and said: "Give us the rest of the dough." While the one negro kept Guttman covered with the revolver the other negro went behind the cigar counter and took $15.06 and a check for $2 from the cash register there and then took $73.38 from the cash register behind the drug counter. The negroes then broke out of the store and escaped.

Burglars ransacked the residence of William Schmitt, 2432 South Grand avenue, in the absence of the family between 8 and 10 p. m., and stole $200 in cash, jewelry valued at $100, a revolver and a collection of old coins.

Miss Elizabeth Westermeyer of 4543 South Compton avenue informed the police that her purse containing $70 was stolen in the afternoon from her locker in the employee's dressing room of the Vanity Fair Hat Co., 1408 Locust street.

Burglars at the home of Mrs.
Theresa Baur, 609 Victor street, in her absence yesterday afternoon took a revolver and scribbled on the back of a receipt this note: "Hands off this bunch."

MONEY FOR RELIEF OF RUSSIAN CHILDREN TO BE SPENT IN U. S.

Hoover Announces Supplies for Famine-Stricken People Will Be Shipped From America.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 5.—Every dollar which may be expended in buying supplies for the relief of hunger-stricken Russian children will be spent in this country, Secretary Hoover said yesterday.

In the event of an undertaking by the American relief administration to fight famine among the young and sick in Russia, he said, all supplies, except surplus stocks abroad, would be purchased in this country and shipped to Russia.

Walter Lyman Brown, European director of the relief administration, Hoover said, was expected to reach Riga on Aug. 10 to open negotiations with the soviet authorities for the undertaking. Beyond press reports, he added, he had received no advice of the release of American prisoners, which was made the primary condition of the administration's offer of aid.

Hoover said that milk, fats and cereals, which lend themselves best to children's diets, such as rice and corn hominy, and materials for soups would form the bulk of the relief cargoes.

TIME OF END OF WAR MOOT POINT IN SUIT FOR RENT

Washington Man Suing Dollar-a-Year Worker Whose Lease Made Reference to End of War.

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Aug. 5.—The question of when the war between the United States and Germany ended—or will end—is the moot point in a suit over war-time living accommodations in Washington, soon to be tried in Supreme Court here.

Robert B. Roosevelt of Washington and Sayville, N. Y., is suing Frederick C. Walcott, rubber company president, for $1750 rental for a Washington house occupied by the latter when he was serving as a "dollar-a-year" man with the American Food Administration.

Walcott refuses to pay, asserting his lease contained a provision that he could cancel it on three months' notice "at the end of the present war." He says he gave notice after the armistice, which he contends ended the war. Roosevelt maintains that the war is not ended yet, and will not be until President Harding issues a peace proclamation.

Rule Change For Title Golf Event Here Suggested

U. S. G. A. Proposes That County Club Reduce Penalty for Ball Out of Bounds.

Officials of the St. Louis Country Club, which will hold the National Amateur Golf Tournament in September, have received a suggestion from the United States Golf Association that the penalty for out of bounds be reduced to mere loss of distance, instead of the stroke and distance imposed by the national association in 1920.

It was explained that the number of roads on the Country Club course made the double penalty too severe.
Prior to 1920 the rules provided that if a player drove out of bounds from the tee he could tee up a second ball. His next shot from the tee would be his second. The 1920 rule provided for loss of stroke and distance, so the shot after driving out of bounds would be the player's third. The same rule governed in the fairway, except that a ball had to be dropped instead of teed up.

MORE TRUTH THAN POETRY
By James J. Montague.

LOVELY WOMAN.

When lovely woman's trailing garments,
Which, some years back, she always wore Picked up insubstantial varnishes Called charms, from every dancing floor,
When she had trouble with her breathing Because she over-tightly laced,
A curving mould of whalebone sheathing Around her slim and shapely waist,
The doctors lectured her severely,
They called her slave to every fad
And vowed that she was quite, or nearly Mad.

When lovely woman's skirts were lifted
By swiftly lengthening degrees,
Until the wanton breezes drifted Unchecked around her dimpled knees,
When she declared against tight-lacing
And, for the moment, laid aside
The stiff and sturdy whalebone casing
That all the doctors had decreed,
The press observed her, far more minutely, While preachers vowed in sermons sad
That she was going absolutely Bad.

Poor woman! Looked upon with loathing
And made the prey of ill report Because in other years her clothing
Was not of the hygienic sort
And then when she reformed the features
That were not medically sound, Behold the editors and preachers Attack her on a moral ground!
How'er she dresses seems to get her Involved in Trouble's awful clutch,
And yet, somehow it doesn't fret her Much.

PENNY WISE.

It is really stupid of the allies not to pay us what they owe so we can go over there and give it back to their hotel keepers.

NOW IT'S ALL STARTED AGAIN.

Just as world peace seemed all arranged, behold what Lloyd George and Northcliffe do but begin a personal row.

His Laundry.

A poet went to stay at a hotel. He was short of money, but was expecting a check any day. One morning he rang the bell and a bellhop answered.
"Boy," he asked, "have you seen anything of my laundry?"
"Your laundry?" inquired the boy in astonishment. "Why, you've only had one shirt since you've been here."

Safety First.

"Tee," said the timid passenger to the aviator, "I understand I'm to sit still and not be afraid, and all that; but tell me, in case something happens and we start to fall, what do I do?"
"Aw, that's easy," said the bird-man. "Just grab anything we're passing and hang on tight!"—Richmond Times-Dispatch.

Too Familiar.

"So you prefer the films to the stage?"
"I do."
"But don't you miss the charm of the speaking voice?"
"I do not. The human voice is what makes me feel like a tired business person. I work at a telephone switchboard."—Washington Star.

Can't Hide the Fact.

"Farmers no longer wear their pants tucked in their boot tops."
"I should say not," rejoined Farmer Cornstossel. "Leather costs too much."—Washington Star.

Green Though Black.

A Southern family, having lost colored girl who had been doing outside work. They first taught her to use the carpet sweeper. Next morn-
